

Useful links

You may have heard us reference lots of websites. Here are link to sites we may have mentioned and some more which may a source of ideas, support and advice for your AAC implementation!

Center for AAC and Autism
The birthplace of the LAMP approach. Full of useful information, stories and other resources.

AAC Language Lab

Online AAC implementation inspiration! A collection of session plans, activity ideas, literacy programmes and more!

Liberator Handouts and Presentations
Your one-stop shop for all of our free resources to help support your AAC instruction.

Paper Based Support Books

Paper based versions of our most-used vocabularies. Perfect as an AAC backup, modelling or assessment tool.

Modelling boards
A collection of A4 boards which represent our most-used vocabularies. Perfect to support modelling.

Book a session with our AAC Consultants

It's easy to book a virtual session with your Regional Consultant using this tool!

Free online webinars
Our free webinars are perfect to boost your confidence at using our devices! Regularly held and all are welcome.

AAC apps

With information about all 3 of our AAC apps including how to videos, features and implementation support.

Realize Language
A data collection tool which works with our devices. Gather information and use it to set goals and review progress.

Liberator's YouTube Channel

Everything you need to know about AAC is covered here, from device tips to implementation - and more!

We continually add new content, resources, videos and webinars so it's worth also following us on social media @LiberatorLtd for all the latest content, ideas and fun! Don't forget to tag us too in your AAC adventures!